GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

A considerable array of scaly people have been banished from the turf in recent years in California. The addition made to this list by Judge Murphy and his associates recently in connection with the running of I Don't Know appears to have been well merited. Commenting on the case the San Francisco Chronicle says:

"The chances of Morse getting back on the turf are now very slim. In fact, Judge Murphy will recommend that his application for a jockey's license be denied. It now appears that the true inwardness of the I Don't Know case has leaked out, and in consequence 'Sec.' Nichols has been warned off the turf. Nichols used to ride Lottie Mills at the old Bay District track, and has also ridden on all the leading courses of America. It will also be remembered that Nichols rode the winner of the Gautemala Derby when a big coup was effected in 1896. At all events, although Nichols has not done any riding for some time, he has taken a very active interest in turf affairs, and had an 'angel' on his staff. According to information obtained by the judges, Nichols and Morse had control of I Don't Know and had the 'angel' down for a good round sum the day Scotch Rose beat the barrier and I Don't Know landed up in second place. I Don't Know was entered again on January 17th in a five furlong dash. The 'angel,' who, by the way, had agreed to protect I Don't Know for $1,000 in the event of his being run up in a selling race, made a protest against playing I Don't Know on Monday, as the odds would be something like 4 to 5, and he was already something like $1,000 loser, and could not get out very well at those odds except by betting something like $1,500. At any rate, I Don't Know was not scratched, and, to add to the dilemma, the 'angel' with the money did not come. If I Don't Know should win there was a possibility that some one would take the horse away, as no one connected with the management had any money, and this explains why Morse took I Don't Know so wide turning into the stretch, thus losing his chance of winning. The owners of I Don't Know were not implicated.

"Now that the officials have made a start it would not hurt the turf by doing a little digging into the methods of another combination whose operations have excited some comment."

Tom Griffin has shipped Strathmeath to his owner Green B. Morris at New Orleans. Morris left the old American Derby winner in California last spring expecting to return this winter, but concluding to try the easier game at New Orleans sent for his veteran. Old Strath will probably prove a good breadwinner over the Crescent City track, especially in mud, for, slightly decayed as he is, he yet lays over the indifferent material in the older division performing there.

A new racing firm this season will be McClelland & Smith. The members of this firm are Mrs. Sallie McClelland, widow of the noted Byron McClelland, and her brother, John D. Smith. Their best possession is the good horse Maceo, entered in the Suburban, and His Highness, the handsome Rayon d'Or—Sallie McClelland colt, entered in the large western events, including the Kentucky, Tennessee and Latonia Derbys of 1899.

BARNEY SCHREIBER'S PRIZE.

Barney Schreiber no doubt picked up a real bargain when he bought Sain at auction last Thursday. Besides being a very good race horse Sain is also royally bred. His sire, St. Serf, was by the unbeaten St. Simon and his dam, The Task, by the unbeaten Barcalaine. His second dam was by Galopin, sire of St. Simon, and his third dam was the dam of the famous mare La Fleche, winner of the Oaks, St. Leger and other great races, and one that has the distinction of having brought the greatest sum for which a mare was ever sold at auction, $66,000. Sain will be one of the lords of the harem at Woodlands, Bridgeton, Mo., and his sons and daughters may well serve to make the place take high rank as a breeding farm.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

At Louisville there are fully two hundred horses in training, the two-year-olds being largely in the majority. Sam Bryant, of Proctor Knott fame, has five head at the track. "I do not think one of them is worth his feed," he said, "but they may win some races at that. I have nearly lost interest in the racing game. The tracks have nearly ruined it, and I wish they would hurry up and finish it so that we could have a new deal and take a fresh start. It will come to that."

At a combination sale of thoroughbreds in San Francisco last Thursday night, Sain was knocked down to Barney Schreiber for $2,500. It was the principal sale of the evening. Shortly prior to the opening of the sale, James MacManus bought Charles Le Bel and St. Philip at $1,100 for the pair.

R. E. M. Porter, who for several years was known to turfmen as the betting agent for Byron McClelland, will have a string of horses this season of his own. He has just claimed the name of Al Sirat for his two-year-old bay colt by Bersan—Katherine Bassett.

Ten of the Avondale mares will visit Himyar's paddock this season, including Ida Pickwick, Soney Lass (Souffle's dam), Wildflower (White Frost's dam), Bracelet (Bangle's dam), and Charmette, by Darebin.

"Soup" Perkins, formerly a popular rider, is hanging about Lexington, with no prospect of a job this season. Soup has lost out completely.

Electric Batteries—Arthur White's Health

HOT SPRINGS, ARK., January 22, 1898.

EDITOR, RACING FORM:

In regard to the article in your issue of yesterday as to the use of electrical appliances on race horses, perhaps you have overlooked the practical trials given on East St. Louis race track some years since.

The association there being of your opinion as to the use of batteries, permitted them when the term "with the battery" appeared opposite the jockey's name on bookmakers' slates. It was found, however, that while the speed of a horse was increased sometimes the jockey would not use the battery to all appearances, especially if the price was very short. The public would not bet on one of the "battery" horses unless the announcement was posted, and at times such horses as favorites were so disgracefully beaten and the running so atrociously irregular, the association revoked the use of electricity as it led to fraud.

It may interest you to know as a matter of news that my son Arthur White has been at my home, St. Louis, for over two months with consumption. After a year's sickness the disease is in the secondary stage as yet, without lung cavities. Though he has not much strength he gets about a few hours daily. We are soon to send him to El Paso, Texas, for a three month's stay and are hopeful that he will improve there where so many consumptives do well or become cured. It may be necessary for him to live there altogether. He is looking about as well as when in Chicago and we have as much confidence in his restoration to health as can be had in this disease.

Yours truly,
KEITH WHITE.

Time, 12, 24½, 37½.

Winner—B. c. by Panique—Waiting II. Start fair. Won ridden out; second and third driving. Also Ran was luckiest. Malay was best. He will race best over a distance. The colt began slowly and finished strong. Will was short, yet ran his race. Ireland, too, was not ready. This is a promising colt. Olintus will incline to a route. He was hardly bridle-wise. Saintly has been well tried. He began like a sloth and was running well at end. Watch him.

3843 SECOND RACE—3-4 Mile. Purse $400. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling.

Time, 25½, 50½, 1:04, 1:17½.

Winner—Br. g. 5, by Blazes—Miss Hall. Start good. Won in a gallop. There were drives for second and third places. Kamsin was best, luckiest and well ridden. Watch Ullman. He ran a bit above his race. Meadow Lark was much hampered at the start and on the first turn. He is ready, was badly ridden and closed a lot of ground. Veragua is ready, ran his race and favors a route. Glenn had notions about the middle of the race. He is good and no route is too long for him when he runs freely. Stentor seemed to run short. Watch him in mud. Treachery was merely aired and favors a distance. Charlemagne was outclassed and short, too.

Overweights—Veragua, 3½ pounds; Charlemagne, 2½.

3844 THIRD RACE—3-4 Mile. Purse $400. 4-year-olds and upward. Selling.

Time, 25½, 50½, 1:04, 1:17½.

Winner—B. g. 5, by Montana—Fusillade's Last. Start good. Won very easily. No contention to note behind leader. Montallade was much the best, is fit as a fiddle and favors a route. Triumph ran an improved race. Cook is a dash horse. He was short and none too well ridden. Watch him, though. Fig Leaf is a mudder. She was cut off on stretch turn and favors mellow going. Starling should be tabbed, is ready and was out of class. Tab Peril, too, for mud. Throw out this race as to her.

3845 FOURTH RACE—1 1-16 Miles. Purse $400. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling.

Time, 25½, 50½, 1:04, 1:17, 1:42½, 1:48½.

Winner—Ch. h. 5, by St. Blaise—Round Dance. Start good. Won ridden out. There was a bustle for third place. The last two were outclassed. Marco was best and ran to the notch. He was well ridden and is in good condition. Myth was short. The race will fit him. Imperious, poorly handled, was interfered with at start and on first turn. Doodle was outclassed in the going.

3846 FIFTH RACE—3-4 Mile. Purse $400. 4-year-olds and upward. Allowances.

Time, 24½, 50, 1:02½, 1:15½.

Winner—B. c. 4, by Ben Ali—Hot Springs. Start straggling. Won in a gallop; place in a drive. Geysier was off flying. He was far the best animal and would have won with an even break. Alvarado, next best, had the worst of racing luck. He is fit and closed strong. Watch Fortunate. He ran a good race and was short. Chartreuse is on the edge and can win soon. Throw out Tierra's race also. He favors a route. Overweights—Chartreuse II, 2½ pounds.

Start good. Won in a hard drive. Tripping was only fairly well handled. She was best and favors a route. Thoburn ran his race and can go a route. Do not miss him in the future. He is cherry ripe. Cabrillo ran to the mark. He is good but dislikes weight. Hohenzollern is ready too. He ran an improving kind of a race and finished straight and true. William was out-classed. He closed at the finish. Was cut off on first turn and ran his race. Terry was not well ridden. He was running stoutly at finish. This fellow favors a route and can be watched.
